RETHINKING ECONOMIC POLICY FOR SOCIAL JUSTICE – A BOOK LAUNCH

4 NOVEMBER, 1 - 2.30 PM

ROOM 19-20

UN WOMEN, 220 E. 42ND ST

Please join leading feminist economists, Radhika Balakrishnan, James Heintz and Diane Elson for the launch of their new book.

The dominant approach to economic policy has so far failed to adequately address the pressing challenges the world faces today: extreme poverty, widespread joblessness and precarious employment, burgeoning inequality, and large-scale environmental threats.

At this event, the authors will show how human rights have the potential to transform economic thinking and policy-making with far-reaching consequences for gender equality and social justice.
